

EXHIBIT 8

“Special Condition” of supervised release imposed by Judge Victoria Roberts in the case of United States v. Doreen Hendrickson, No. 13-cr-20371-1

DEFENDANT: DOREEN M. HENDRICKSON
CASE NUMBER: 13CR20371-1

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

Upon defendant's release from prison, if she is not current in filing income tax, she must do so within 60 days of release and must provide copies of tax forms filed to the supervising officer, or submit a statement that she is current in submitting tax forms.

Tax forms must be submitted without an altered jurat, affidavit or anything else that prevents the IRS from properly processing her tax submissions.

While on supervised release, defendant is to fully cooperate with the IRS by filing all delinquent or amended returns within 60 days of the release on supervision and to timely file all future returns that come due during the term of supervised release. On these returns defendant shall not alter the jurats, add disclaimers, or otherwise make it impossible for the IRS to properly process them and they cannot be based on any theory contained in Cracking the Code.

Defendant is to report all earned taxable income and claim only allowable expenses on those returns. Hendrickson is to provide all appropriate documentation in support of said returns. Upon request, defendant is to furnish the IRS with information pertaining to all assets and liabilities and defendant is to fully cooperate by paying all taxes, interest and penalties due, and otherwise comply with the tax laws of the United States.
