Purpose of form. Form 4852 serves as a substitute for Forms W-2, W-2c, and 1099-R and is completed by taxpayers or their representatives when (a) their employer or payer does not give them a Form W-2 or Form 1099-R, or (b) when an employer or payer has issued an incorrect Form W-2 or Form 1099-R. Attach this form to your income tax return.

You should always attempt to get Form W-2 or Form 1099-R from your employer or payer before contacting the IRS or filing Form 4852. After February 14, you may call the IRS at 1-800-829-1040 if you still have not received Form W-2 or Form 1099-R. Generally, do not file Form 4852 before April 15.

If you received an incorrect Form W-2 or Form 1099-R, you should always attempt to have your employer or payer issue a corrected form before filing Form 4852.

Note. Retain a copy of Form 4852 for your records. Check your Social Security Statement (received at least a full year after the date shown on line 4) against Form 4852. If the earnings you reported on Form 4852 are not shown in the statement, you should contact the Social Security Administration (SSA) at the telephone number shown on the statement. Alternatively, after September 30 following the date shown on line 4, you may contact your local SSA office to verify wages reported by your employers.

Will I need to amend my return? If you receive a Form W-2, Form W-2c, or Form 1099-R, after your return is filed with Form 4852, and the information differs from the information reported on your return, you must amend your return by filing Form 1040X, Amended U.S. Individual Income Tax Return.

Penalties. The IRS will challenge the claims of individuals who attempt to avoid or evade their federal tax liability by using Form 4852 in a manner other than as prescribed. Potential penalties for the improper use of Form 4852 include:

- Accuracy-related penalties equal to 20 percent of the amount of taxes that should have been paid,
- Civil fraud penalties equal to 75 percent of the amount of taxes that should have been paid, and
- A $5,000 civil penalty for filing a frivolous return or submitting a specified frivolous submission as described by section 6702 of the Internal Revenue Code.
