Notice of Refund Due and Payable to Mario Domínguez [REDACTED]

15 May 2015

Department of the Treasury
Internal Revenue Service
Fresno, CA 93888-0002

Re: refund due to Mario Domínguez [REDACTED] for "tax year" 2012; testimonial form 1040, forms 4852, and corrected forms 1099-INT (herein, collectively, also "return")

Reference Number: [REDACTED]

To Whom It May Concern:

Because it appears that the office of Internal Revenue (a.k.a. "Internal Revenue Service") is authorized by statute to collect internal revenue on behalf of the duly constituted government for the united States of America, and your office, "Department of the Treasury" "Internal Revenue Service", appears to be affiliated with that agency, I write to you regarding my returns for the federal "tax year" 2012.

Based upon my receipt of a number of incorrect "tax" statements, which are known to have been submitted by third-parties to your agency, I have come to comprehend that my private sector compensation, coincidentally received with the federal "tax year" 2012, have been erroneously mischaracterized by those same third-parties as payments made to me in the course of a "trade or business". However, none of those payments is connected with the performance of the functions of a public office or otherwise constitutes gains, profit, or income within the meaning of relevant law. After a deliberate, honest, self-assessment, based upon my own first-hand knowledge of all my compensation coincident with the federal "tax year" 2012, I have determined that I have no federal tax liability, and that my status is that of non-"taxpayer", as evidenced by my enclosed return. Consequently, I have determined that I am due a refund of the $1,460.00 erroneously withheld from my private sector compensation and conveyed to your agency as a result of these incorrect, third-party "tax" statements.

As I have a strong interest in correcting the administrative record and obtaining my refund posthaste, I have enclosed the original filing of my claim for refund for the federal "tax year" 2012. I have endeavored to provide in good faith a complete and correct return in order to facilitate the expeditious processing of my claim. I believe that I have provided all necessary information in a form that lends itself to this purpose, as I have no desire to delay or impede lawful process. I attach one (1) testimonial form 1040, as well as the documentation necessary to support my claim. The supporting documentation consists of four (4) forms 4852 and two (2) corrected forms 1099-INT. Together, the testimonial forms and all supporting documentation constitute my return for the federal "tax year" 2012.

All secured Rights, Privileges, Immunities, and Remedies are explicitly reserved to me by my restricted signature, given below. Subscribed, and affirmed on this 15th day of the 5th month of the 2015th year, reckoned according to the Gregorian calendar.

Respectfully,

Mario Domínguez [REDACTED]
of my own right and without representation, with explicit reservation of all my rights and without prejudice,

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code.
Future developments. The IRS has created a page on IRS.gov for information about Form 4852, at www.irs.gov/form4852. Information about any future developments affecting Form 4852 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted on that page.
Purpose of form. Form 4852 serves as a substitute for Forms W-2, W-2c, and 1099-R and is completed by you or your representatives when (a) your employer or payer does not issue you a Form W-2 or Form 1099-R or (b) an employer or payer has issued an incorrect Form W-2 or Form 1099-R. Attach this form to the back of your income tax return, before any supporting forms or schedules.
 You should always attempt to get Form W-2, Form W-2c, or Form 1099-R from your employer or payer before contacting the IRS or filing Form 4852. If you do not receive the missing or corrected form from your employer or payer by February 14, you may call the IRS at 1-800-829-1040 for assistance. You must provide your name, address (including ZIP code), phone number, social security number, and dates of employment, and your employer's or payer's name, address (including ZIP code), and phone number. The IRS will contact your employer or payer and request the missing form. The IRS also will send you a Form 4852. If you do not receive the missing form in sufficient time to file your income tax return timely, you may use the Form 4852 that the IRS sent you.

If you received an incorrect Form W-2 or Form 1099-R, you should always attempt to have your employer or payer issue a corrected form before filing Form 4852.
Note. Retain a copy of Form 4852 for your records. To help protect your social security benefits, keep a copy of Form 4852 until you begin receiving social security benefits, just in case there is a question about your work record and/or earnings in a particular year. After September 30 following the date shown on line 4, you may use a my Social Security online account to verify wages reported by your employers. Please visit www.ssa.gov/myaccount. Or, you may contact your local SSA office to verify wages reported by your employer.
Will I need to amend my return? If you receive a Form W-2, Form W-2c, or Form 1099-R after your return is filed with Form 4852, and the information differs from the information reported on your return, you must amend your return by filing Form 1040X, Amended U.S. Individual Income Tax Return.
Penalties. The IRS will challenge the claims of individuals who attempt to avoid or evade their federal tax liability by using Form 4852 in a manner other than as prescribed. Potential penalties for the improper use of Form 4852 include:
 • Accuracy-related penalties equal to 20 percent of the amount of taxes that should have been paid,
 • Civil fraud penalties equal to 75 percent of the amount of taxes that should have been paid, and

None. Form 1099-R was issued prior to errors being noted.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code.
Future developments. The IRS has created a page on IRS.gov for information about Form 4852, at www.irs.gov/form4852. Information about any future developments affecting Form 4852 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted on that page.
Purpose of form. Form 4852 serves as a substitute for Forms W-2, W-2c, and 1099-R and is completed by you or your representatives when (a) your employer or payer does not issue you a Form W-2 or Form 1099-R or (b) an employer or payer has issued an incorrect Form W-2 or Form 1099-R. Attach this form to the back of your income tax return, before any supporting forms or schedules.
You should always attempt to get Form W-2, Form W-2c, or Form 1099-R from your employer or payer before contacting the IRS or filing Form 4852. If you do not receive the missing or corrected form from your employer or payer by February 14, you may call the IRS at 1-800-829-1040 for assistance. You must provide your name, address (including ZIP code), phone number, social security number, and dates of employment, and your employer's or payer's name, address (including ZIP code), and phone number. The IRS will contact your employer or payer and request the missing form. The IRS also will send you a Form 4852. If you do not receive the missing form in sufficient time to file your income tax return timely, you may use the Form 4852 that the IRS sent you.

If you received an incorrect Form W-2 or Form 1099-R, you should always attempt to have your employer or payer issue a corrected form before filing Form 4852.
Note. Retain a copy of Form 4852 for your records. To help protect your social security benefits, keep a copy of Form 4852 until you begin receiving social security benefits, just in case there is a question about your work record and/or earnings in a particular year. After September 30 following the date shown on line 4, you may use a my Social Security online account to verify wages reported by your employers. Please visit www.ssa.gov/myaccount. Or, you may contact your local SSA office to verify wages reported by your employer.
