Dear Sherry,

Thank you for your letter,

I am not certain I comprehend your request. I did send the relevant documentation that you are asking for with my tax return. There were 5 pages included with my filing. Did they not all arrive? Or, did they get separated in handling? Enclosed were 2 pages that were my tax return and 3 pages of form 4852 (substitute for form W-2 to rebut & correct an erroneous W-2 form known to have been sent to the IRS by my three "employers").

Unfortunately, you have the originals and I cannot resend them. All I have is a copy pdf included with my tax return on file. Your letter specifically states, "Do not send a copy of your return". The only way I can send copies of my sworn testimony would be to include the return. If you specifically request that, I will send it.

I would also like to point out that my sworn testimony (2016 1040 tax return & supporting documents) already provides the information you seem to be requesting. I did double-check my addition and my return is accurate. Please go ahead and process my refund right away and send it as soon as possible without further delay.

May I suggest that if you need a copy of the erroneous W-2s known to have been sent by my "employers", that you contact their accounting departments and have them resend them. If you need further clarification, or if I miscomprehend your request, please let me know as soon as possible

Sincerely yours,

David Custer
