General Instructions

Refer to the Internal Revenue Code.
Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form 4852, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/Form4852.
Purpose of form. Form 4852 serves as a substitute for Forms W-2, Wage and Tax Statement, and 1099-R and is completed by you or your representative if your employer or payer doesn't issue you a Form W-2 or Form 1099-R or if an employer or payer has issued an incorrect Form W-2 or Form 1099-R. Attach this form to the back of your tax return along with any supporting forms or schedules.
Information always attached to get your Form W-2, Form W-2c, or Form 1099-R from your employer or payer before contacting the Internal Revenue Service. If you don't receive the missing or incorrect form from your employer or payer by the end of February, contact the IRS at 800-829-1040 for assistance. You must provide your name, address (including ZIP code), phone number, employment status and dates of employment. You also must provide the name, address (including ZIP code) of your employer or payer. The IRS will contact your employer or payer to get the missing form. The IRS also will send you a letter explaining your status. The missing form is insufficient time to receive your form. You may use the Form 4852 that you prepared.

If you received an incorrect Form W-2 or Form 1099-R, you should always attempt to have your employer or payer issue a corrected form before filing Form 4852.

Note: Retain a copy of Form 4852 for your records. To help protect your social security benefits, keep a copy of Form 4852 until you begin receiving social security benefits, just in case there is a question about your work record and/or earnings in a particular year. After September 30 following the date shown on line 4, you may use your Social Security online account to verify wages reported by your employer. Please visit www.SSA.gov/myaccount. Or, you may contact your local SSA office to verify wages reported by your employer.

Will I need to amend my return? If you receive a Form W-2, Form W-2c, or Form 1099-R after your return is filed with Form 4852, and the information you receive indicates that the information reported on your original return is incorrect, you must amend your return by filing Form 1040X, Amended U.S. Individual Income Tax Return. You are responsible for filing your income tax return with accurate information regardless of whether you receive a Form W-2, Form W-2c, or Form 1099-R and regardless of whether the information on any forms received is correct.

Penalties. The IRS will challenge the claims of individuals who attempt to avoid or evade their federal tax liability by using Form 4852 in a manner other than as prescribed. Potential penalties for the improper use of Form 4852 include:
