RE: 0625727020 - LTR 12C dated May 02, 2023

Dear S.C. McHenry,

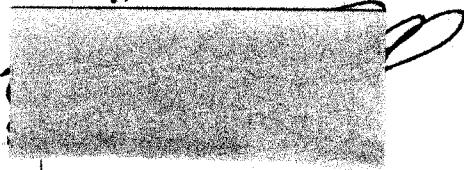

Thank you for the letter LTR 12C dated May 02, 2023. However, I am a little confused. It appears this is a duplicate request. I previously received a LTR 12C dated March 31, 2023 (0625727119) from your office and replied to you with the requested documents. They were sent to you by Certified Mail #70210350000191558940, and according to the USPS tracking tool, were left with an individual at the above address on April 7, 2023 at 11:43 a.m.

I realize this is an extremely busy time for your office, so for your convenience I am resubmitting the requested documents along with my original response and a copy of both LTR 12Cs that I have received.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter, and I hope that this will assist your office to expedite the processing of my 2022 return. I am expecting a full refund of $38,474.81.00 without delay.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare these statements and accompanying documents (Forms 4852) to the best of my knowledge and belief, to be true, correct, and complete.

Sincerely,

A rectangular area of the document is redacted with a grey stippled pattern, obscuring the signature of Gerald J. Langwell. A handwritten flourish or mark is visible to the right of the redaction.
