

Shaleese L. Wright

[REDACTED]

April 11, 2024

Correspondance ID #76549589

To Whom it May Concern,

On March 8th, 2024 I mailed my 2023 Individual Tax Return to the Virginia Department of Revenue (Certified Mail # 7022 2410 0003 4948 1162) (Copy enclosed). It included (1) Virginia Form 760 and (1) Form 4852 which serves to rebut and correct erroneous information on documents known to have been submitted to the Virginia Department of Revenue by the "Payer" listed on Line 5 of Form 4852.

Also enclosed is (one) Corrected Form 1099-NEC which also serves to rebut erroneous information returns submitted to your agency.

While my 2023 Individual Income Tax Return did not include the forms indicated as "required", it did in fact include all the acceptable forms necessary to process the return. My return included a Form 4852, which is the legal form used to correct an incorrect Form W-2. As you should know, when a Form 4852 is substituted for a Form W-2, the W-2 is not to be included with the return so as not to furnish conflicting information.

Additionally, I submitted a Corrected 1099-NEC which legally rebuts any allegations made that I received "gains, profit or income" made in the course of conducting a "trade or business". No payments were received by myself from the "Payer" which were connected with the performance of the functions of Public Office, or otherwise constitute gains, profits or income within the meaning of relevant law.

I can assure you that my 2023 Individual Tax return is complete, accurate and truthful, as sworn to by my signature, declared under penalty of law. I have included all relevant copies to validate my Tax Return in the manner you requested.

Therefore, knowing full well that the return in question is complete, accurate and without missing information, your expediency is expected in resolving this non-issue, processing my Form 760 using the attached Form 4852 (and Corrected 1099-NEC) as submitted and returning to me my rightful property, totaling $393.

Under penalty of perjury, I declare these statements and documents are correct and complete to the best of my knowledge and accuracy.

Sincerely,
Shaleese L. Wright